

San Juan Island National Historical Park

American Camp

Welcome to American Camp, the southern unit of San Juan Island National Historical Park. The site includes nearly 1,250 acres of saltwater shoreline, prairie, forest and historic structures. Visitor center exhibits focus on archaeology and daily life in both camps. Except for federal holidays, the center is open Thursday through Sunday fall, winter and spring, and daily during summer. Rangers and volunteers are on duty to provide information.

Jakle's Lagoon

Jakle's Lagoon trail — Hike along the old roadbed and enjoy the quiet of a Douglas fir, cedar and hemlock canopy. This wooded area shelters deer and many types of birds, and remains one of the most popular hiking areas on San Juan Island. (1.5 mi.)

Mt. Finlayson trail — Hike along the grassy ridge to the top of Mt. Finlayson where you can see Mt. Baker to the east, Mt. Rainier to the southeast, the Olympic Mountains to the south and Vancouver Island, British Columbia to the west. Come back the way you came or through Jakle's Lagoon (3 mi. loop)
